Dear Tamara Dwyer ,

Below is your renewal license card. Verify the information printed on the front of the card is correct. If errors are found, contact the office immediately.

Please make note of the license expiration date printed on your new card. You are responsible for renewing your license prior to the expiration date or you will be required to pay a late fee. Before your next renewal, your continuing education hours must be earned no earlier than the first date printed on the card and no later than the second date printed on the card. This does not apply to an establishment license.

The board's rules regarding continuing education information is available on the bureau's website. Select the board name from the list on the left side of the screen. Select Laws and Rules from list on the left side of the screen. Click on the Continuing Education chapter.
